CALL FOR SPEAKERS AND PROJECTS

The OpenTechSummit is a Free Open Source technology event in Europe for developers, startups, and contributors. In 2015 the event takes place in Berlin on 14th May. Talks, workshops and projects at the OpenTechSummit range from Open Hardware, to design, Libre Graphics, Maker projects and Free and Open Source Software.

For our 2015 feature event we are looking for speakers that share our passion about code and community. We are interested in topics including:

- Open Source and Free Software
- Open Hardware and Free Networks
- Internet, Society and Startups
- Open Data and Free Knowledge
- Linux
- Open Design, 3D and Libre Graphics

Participants from around the world are expected to join the event. The first OpenTechSummit took place in Taiwan in 2009.

We are looking for proposals in German or English. Submission deadline is 15th March 2015.
